LAS VEGASIN HER GLORY.

The long-talked-about first week race in 24 seconds by five feet. of December has at last arrived and past. For the last several-weeks one coach after another brought heavy loads of passengers from the East and West; the noble stead had to fulfill its duty in bringing us visitors mail-routes. Mule and oxwagon is: sued forth their precious treasures hands. of rural districts and soon our hotels were obliged to rent private houses for the accomodation of guests. Hardly a family, from our bon ton circles to the humble laborer, escaped from being increased by numberless members of relatives or

Last Sunday noon the festivities commenced by a public exhibition of acrobatic performances on the plaza where young and old, native and foreigner, jointly assembled to hear the wit and humor of that pudget of by about eight feet, fun, Jesus Molina, the clown; while a few, bent an game, diverted themed quietly by and night instead of the judges decided it a draw. selves in the cockpit. The day pass bringing rest to the inhabitants, only added new vigor to untiring numbers who, invited by the melo-dious strains of Pancho Percz Brass band, assembled in the "Dancing Hall" of Messrs. George Batts and John Allison where in the enjoyment of the tapsicorian the wee sma' hours came upon the assembled guests quite unawares.

Monday morning while beaux and beauty still lay in the embrace of Morpheus, because of light fentastic stops of the previous night, the un' tiring gamesters were astirr to fight a main of five chickens for $400 a side in which Messrs. Sam Kaiser of this town and Jim Shelby, of Santa Fo, figured as the principal actors, Sam drew the first blood but Jin. got the next three games in succes sion and claimed stakes. By the time another rooster had been "heel el" and won in favor of Sam Kaiser noon had come. Eberybody hurried home to do justice to the inner man and away went the tide of the busy ham toward the race track.

What a bustle, what, a stir? Here family carriage of the wealthy, there hurried pace to the race course and persons upon that route. even the burro is called upon to jug | Charter Oak Stoves and stove pipe at A. along the members of the lower class | Grzeinchowski. by twos and threes who as well as the rest show their anxiety to overtake and pass the thousands of foot passengers who like a never ending of Las Vegas who so cordaily and efficient stream of busy bees lined the roads by co-operated with them, I express my sin their plunder is not yet known. The securan all sides until the day had far ad cyrest thanks to all who took any part being to toom, begins to took away every being took away every being to took away every being took away every being

"Fly" appears first on the track, but is soon joined by "Walking John" after a short time spent in leading the racers up and down the course the signal is given to start; but before the spirited steads reach the judges stand the keen eye of Mr. Hill, the trainer of "Fly" discovers that she had split and smash. ed one of her plates and the signal is given to detain the coursers. This of course, as it needed the help of mechanical aid to repair the dams A. Grzesichowsai. ages, put off the race until Tuesday the 3d.

At the appointed hour of two o'clock, P. M., Las Vegas again de The mile track was first to be hone cellent beverage of Bacchus. ored with the pacing match. Don Anicoto Baca, of the Upper town, was promptly on hand and Chas, Ilfold had not to be waited for either. From first to last two to one was of tered and slowly accepted on the bayhorse of the last named gentle-

Without much trouble a good start was effected and Aniceto Buen's black Graciachows ai. was left behind after the first ten yards. The bay never once broke but gallantly paced in the lead and, if the rider had not kept back his horse on the home stretch, could have increased the distance of sixty yards to double that space of coming yards to double that space of coming in all of the Nebrasha State Orphan State State State State State State State State of the state of t in ahead. Stake $500 a side. After considerable hurraling and $5, For sale as this Office, rejoicing "Fly" was espired to be coming toward to her track and soon every body was astir to take a good for salo at May hays' store at $1.50 per position. "Walking John" was the galleninverite, though proming was neithor offered or asked.

the horses effected a ctart; in the first fifty yards Walking John gair.

Sergt. Schoffer were in town during week first fifty yards Walking John gair.

ed a little; but Fly overtook and his scabbard to use it a made here during his two weeks tray tried under this he repedy sank. He lost flesh in bottles. Address Ft. Union P. O. 9-1y hundred yards. At half ways, dayight existed; at three hundred yards but from there on Walking John slowly came creeping up and at SATURDAY, DEC. 7, 1872. four hundred his rider threw up his ap as a signal that he was abreast In the next fort yards Fly was loosing ground and the judges decided that Walking John had won the Wild enthusiasm and after listen-Many were the parties who at noon from directions not blessed with went out on horsebac; and returned over the bank moved cut a few days ago, to.

where belonged before the race.

On Wednesday only one race came off that between Maxwell's

Thursday, the Hill pony ran against the horse known as "Capt. lenks," belonging to Lieut. II. S.

Friday, the Hill pony raced again against the Gordon pony, in a quarter mile heat, for $100 a side; but six nights' dancing at the various establishments, are quite down the vank, hearted, and hope and pray that our town may soon robe herself again in vorably considered is, too, our des

LOCAL ITEMS.

Local or special notices will be charged at twenty-five cents per line for each inser-

Extra copies of the Gazerre for sale at this office at 10 cts. a piece.

The following explains itself: SANTA ER, N. M. Dec. 3, 1872.

DEAR SIR:-I am pleased to be able to aform you that I have just been advised from Washington that my ree mmendations goes the fashionable phanton and as to rostal affairs in this fercitory have te n halls iron har was once in, the door was pried favorably considered and that the unit service upon the Peces route will be ordered. the numberless vehicles of midde I amgratified that I have been able to seclass; rider after rider gallops by at | cure mail facilities for the large number of Weache building, and in behalf of the 1-ur-s gratifying; ther being now money on hand the floor. It is probable that they secured to get the organ, which will be Cought immeniately, and one fundred dollars over loxes. the purchase of a bell. J. A. Annin. Las Vegus, Doc. eth, 1872.

Everything you want, cheap for cash, at Santa Fé papers complain of the irregularity of their town clock, and we bere would like to hear the chime of one even it it would be out of time, just to see how it does sound.

Wm. Carl & Co., of Saata Fé have our on a for that keg of lager which we received just in time for the testivities and well swaying in the breeze, hanging down by the populated on account of the sport. | nanufacture and mete out the rich and ex-

Howie knives, belis, holsters, scald ands and caltridge boxes at A. Grzelachowski.

as well as a large and assorted stock of Dime | was used to do don the sound, and it and evels on hand by G. W. Stebbus. Give wered the porpose admirably. Lim a call.

A complete assortment of staple and farcy groceries for wasiesans and retail at A.

We call the attention of the traveling onlike to the advertisament under "New but gallantly paced in the lead and, To. Day" of the Fort Lyon Bridge Comsylum. Sugge tickets $1, or 6 tickets for left the city not an hour too soon to escape haven't fest while to work it out prop-

Turpentine, of the best quality, manufactured by C. B. Collier, Fr. Union, N. M.

merited punishment.

all kinus of cartridges at A. Grzelachowski.

[From the Detroit Free Press.]

on foot; some even carying their sads since which time the rooms have been empty.

Any one calling into the bank can readily see that one of the rooms is directly over the bank.

Any one calling into the bank can readily see that one of the rooms is directly over the bank.

Any one calling into the bank can readily see that one of the rooms is directly over the bank about his prisoner, and made an early visit to his cell. As he opened the door, Moribank, and that another is over the vault, gan was in the act of twisting the blankets from the bedside. The great editor was We heard it asserted that more which latter is a room ten or twelve feet around the bars of the cell window to hang gone in peace, after so many struction. than $100,000 found themselves in different pockets in the evening from different pockets and different pockets in the evening from different pock sary notes, and were probably two or three days putting the job. They did not ask to rent the rooms, probably learned that they might in some way excite suspicion, but grapple with Morgan. That worthy printed horse and Capt. Shoemaker's mare Wednesday night, at an hour unknown, two. his claws deep in Gassen's face, and a libeacquaintances, and it so happened for a purse of three hundred dollars that our quiet but thriving town soon was filled to excess.

MEXICO.

We desired the larged street wounds. His ribs are quite sore from the door. Once in they had a free range of all feeded class of Morigan. He finally suc: Matamores Mexico, Nov. 22.—The Wexthe rooms. The window are furnished with ceeded in throwing him to the ground, and lican International Commission has issued > 600 wards, in which the latter lost signal to the end in the room ran the other that he must have a tolerably desperate whatever kind, which may have originated brough two rooms, lowered the top such of strain in his composition. the judges decided it a draw.

>
> Thus then, the sport was over and Las Vegas once more has resumed her humble garb of every day life. The people from afar are leaving the best way they can, and we noticed that the "dark-eyed belles," after six nights' dancing at the various overalisand scotch caps, unrolled their bank their bank to work. They sawed through the floor the which of the jost and about two fit to other way, and with a hour two fit to other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit the other way, and with a hour two fit is, and thus, in the peroxysm, it quite frequently from the tonded states, but they could five or six men to hold him. It was owing to these that he was discharged from the army. He had come from for I had being the object of the Commission to form the truthe frequently five or six men to hold him. It was owing to these that he was discharged from the army. He had come from for I had being the object of the Commission to other damages so incarred, it being the object of the Commission to form in a complete judgment of the question a complete judgment of the damages of item they to hold him. It was owing to these that he was discharged from the army. He had come from for I had being the object of the Commission to other damages of item they to hold him. It was owing to these that he was discharged from the army. He had come from for I had being the object of the Commission to other object of the Commission to other object of the come discharged from the army. He had come from for I wan in a state, in th on the door, and part falling through into Getting into the vault tha real work commeneed. The men were no doubt many times interrupted and much c'elayed in their her bright Sunday go-Church tudds. werk. A men, supposed to be the "opera May their fervent orations be fax tor," was seen on the corner several times by several different persons, including the policeman on that beat, and Mr. Hogan, a private watchmen, who is employed by the ank, and by other parties. It was the report yesterday that lingun had a conversation with the man, but, as he was not to be seen during the day, the trath or falsity of the report was not are claimed. Be that as is may, watchman Hogan or any other po-liceman would not have thought it a very lingular thing to have mut a respectablelooking stranger standing on the corner, or volking up and down. He could have furnished a score of reasonaple excuses.

That the burglars were professionals is shown by every action, as well as by the full and costly "kit" which they left behind. Ouce in the vault, they began on the door. As in any safe, Liffie's has a point where the burglars can start a wedge. They have half dezen steel "and wedg s. and they used up four or ive before they spring toe deer ar emough to lasert a "nimury." back about three inches at the top.

The sate contained a large smount of areney, but this was behaind the second door. Mr. Greely was said to be staying, bet could not at first comparing at was about twelve not at first learn of his wherenbans. He demotion. A hand could not be shoved in. did not mean to let the public know where but they used bone wires and fished the eutire lot out. This was all the secured from In behalt of the ladies of my family, who the sale. In the vault were sixteen private originated the recent festival held in the boxes, containing warehes, jewelry, money, moragages, notes, bonds, etc., and the fet lows broke open every one. The value of therein. The results are very sabshacery thing to them, leaving the other papers on which, as I understand, is to be devoted to the purchase of a bell.

J. A. ANNIS.
The operator out ide may have been frightened, or daying it may have been so close at hand that they feared to work longer. This Litter theory is probably the correct one. The name left everything behind, even to their caps and everything them they been superhuman strain incident to his wife's superhuman strain incident to his wife's ightened away the would not have taken time to strip off. Yesterday morning every. thing was or they had left it. Their tools an abered abut fifty different articles, in closing gunlets, little, saws, hammest, w.d. Full assortment of saddles and bridles at is one at the best ones seen for a long time. and every tool is a perfect piece of mechan-ism. These are almost invariably left beaind, as the retreating burglars do not want to be landened. The telegrahy string was may Santa I'é be proud to have such men to door, just at they had left it, and they took care to shat the door as they went down

One can but wonder why some alarm was near raised, and yet, in holding over the "hit," harmedly see that but saws are of the friest make and very shorp, and the noise, of prying out the bricks was of wedges All the latest newspapers and periodicals used to open the safe, a large lump of putty

Hoganisan ex-member of the police force, has been a trusted watchman for a year or more, and it is just to suppose that he was on his bent and, active and vigilant. It is the spinion of the desectives that the burglars could have carried of their work and not alarmed any one walking by on either side of the building. During the part two works there have

[From the San Diego (Cal.) Globe] came into San Dago from Fort yound. He Itican with whom he was a good, and in Fine named leaf and fancy brands of chew- the Fitch Regiment of United States Carmin his case was critical, and Dr. Chante and Word was given for the judges to harbowrki.

Word was given for the judges to harbowrki.

They removed him to Dr. Cheate's residual control of the first trial in t

Union for medical assistance.

Union for medical assistance.

This is the profit of carrying arms around ing as he put into his pecket, that he would be well as a faw days the possibility of his speedy the fair. He took a cigar houself, remark-death forced bedfintous willing recognition.

We directly night he failed rapidly, but on Fig still was a whole length ahead town; we are sorry for the Sergeant but never live to smoke it. He then diew out Thursday evening was somewhat better. coad think of no better remedy to do a large pocket knife, and opening the blade. Between 8 and 9 o clock a m., he fell near away with the reign of pistols and howier proceeded rapidly to draw it across his by into an unconscious condition, which haves, than for every person who carries throat. No blood followed the movement, cantinued with some intervals throughout deadly weapons to receive the same wall and everybody supposed it was a hoax. He the day. About none he said distinctly an repeated the stab, and this time the blood with some force. "I kdow that my Redec rashed out in torrents. Perceiving his dest or liveth." During the day he recognize Winchester Carbines, Colt's Pistols and perate attempt, the crowd then fell upon various people, and on the whole suffered nim, and wrouted the knife from his hand. Lut little. Up to within half an hour of the City Marshall Cassen was at once summoned, and, when he rereded the "Sherman | circumsa of what was going on around him House," he found that it required the efforts even answering in moneylighdes and intel-of four or five men to hold the desperate ligently, all questions addressed to him. Will enthusiasm and after listensing a few minutes to the melodious strains of Pancho's Brass band as well as Jesus Alarid' musical corps of five everybody struck out for town.

Many were the parties who at noon.

At eight o'clock Thursday morning, when the seemed to be under the influence of a fit, and its man festations were similar to these fequently observed in epileptic existences that the place had been visited by gang of birglars.

At eight o'clock Thursday morning, when the seemed to be under the influence of a fit, and its man festations were similar to these fequently observed in epileptic exists. It was foun necessary to handcaff by gang of birglars.

It is done, "and beyond brief answers to to these fequently observed in epileptic exists. It was foun necessary to handcaff by gang of birglars.

It is done, and the desperate man. He seemed to be under the influence of a fit, and its man festations were similar to these fequently observed in epileptic exists. It was foun necessary to handcaff by gang of birglars.

It is done, and the desperate man. He seemed to be under the influence of a fit, and its man festations were similar to these fequently observed in epileptic exists. It was foun necessary to handcaff by gang of birglars and a few everybody struck out for town.

Many were the parties who at noon.

[From the Rockport (Ind.) Republican.]

A son of Eugenie Carnes, and grandson of Charles Herion. Esq., of this county, nict with his death yesterday in the afternoon in the most shocking manner. The littie boy who was about eight years old, was going home from school, and in passing through a lot of hogs, with pigs, on his father's place, it is supposed be stopped to with some of the pigs, when the infurated hogs rushed upon him devoured him b dily, saving head and shoulders. No one was near the scene of this awful tragedy, and consequently no assistance could be giv ea him. The particulars of this sail and frightful case were given us late last night by Mr. Smith, the gentle mady agent in this city of the Pacific and Atlantic telegraph

New York, Nov. 29,-Horace Greeley died at 6,50 o'clock p. m. to-day. He was conscious to the last, and passed away percefully, surrounded by his relatives and a few personal triends.

To-iny reporter visited Tarrytown, where hand red deliars of postal currency, some of | was told by Mr. Strart, a friend of Mr. Greea tied up to be sent to Washington for re- loy's, that the latter was scoluded and they he was. Mr. Stuart suit that he was dengerously sick and had symptoms of brain tovers that he might live sen days, but that he (Smort) doubted it. Subsequently Mr. Greely was found to be staying in the vil lage. Around him were a number of his friends, including Samuel Sinchir, John F. and also his daughters. Three physicians were in consultation. They defined his discount an organic affection of the brain, the result of physical prostration consequent apon his unrematring attention to business. Day before yesterday, Mr. Greeley lost his consciousness. His last coherent words were great physical system was prostrated by the superhuman strain incident to his wife s death and the labors of the campaign. At BEEF PORK, VEAL, MUTTON, one o'clock to-day, when Mr. Greeley's death was momentarily expected both by his relatives and physicians, Therlow Weed ap-proached Mr. Greeley's bedside and said, Greeley stared variety and said: "In all my life I never saw you." Mr. Weed then said: My name is Thurlow Weed." Mr. before." Mr. Greeley spoke very incoher ently, and failed to recognize his own daugh.

The Tribune furnishes the following account of the illness and last hours of Mr. Greeley." He was in almost as good health as asual when, on the day after the election, he wrote the card announcing his resump-His sleeplessnes was known to have become worse, but for years he has suffered more or less from the same difficulty, although it is now clear that sufficient allowance has not been made for the entense strain upon him throughout the summer, and especially during the last months of his wife's lilness. It som became evident that his strength was unequal to the gard task to which he had set himself. He wrote only three or four cargial articles, no one of them over half a olium to length, and the most notable, perimps, was that entitled Conclusions. rly. You had bester pet it in shape At lost, on the 12th instant, he abandone the effort to visit the office and sent for the About two weeks ago, Edward Morigan | family physician of Mr. A. Johnston, here with him, as has since been discovered. whose house his wife had died. He graw passed him before running one a knocker, it discharged, wounding him in to quiet him down. They appearedly success and strength with startling rapidity, and in of lawyears occupying the suite of rooms moned, and the man's wounds were attended remained conscious, rational and free from pain, though too weak to speak. In the ad-Mr. Greeley's life was insured for $100,000

It is reported that the Chappaqua home-stead will be abandoned by the family and inside blinds, and these they shut as closely putting the handenils upon him a second notice containing the following: "All pertime. The man has very indication of being | sons in Mexican territory who have suffered Jenks," belonging to Lieut. H. S. Before proceeding to work they took a subject to epileptic fits, and two attempts any attack upon their persons or properly upon his own life in an hour or so shows since the 2th day of February, 1863, of from invasions or incursions of innividuals the northwest window, and dropped the other end down to a confederate, who was play the part of telegraph, operator. All things being ready, the follows donnel their everalls and Scot heaps, unrolled neighbour fits; and then, in the peroxysm, it quite free their chains for the damages so incurred, it in Mexican territory to present their com-plaints to the Commission with the necessuy proof. Residents in Mexican territory solicited to present themselves before the Commission in order to have all the necessary means and facilities of knowing what has occurred at the time of the events that are said to have been committed on both contiers and that they may be explained and prevented in the future." The investigation will evidently take a wide range, and will include the filibustering on this from

ARRIED.—In Denver; November 22, Miss Laura Thompson to Mr. D.P.,

NEW TO-DAY.

Fort Lyon Bridge.

Forty miles saved from Kit Carson to enta Fe via Fort Lyon, Las Anims City Emery's and Fort Umon. Plenty wood water and grass. Cultivated farms and the Roton Mountains with its toll gates

MISCELLA NEOUS.

A. GRIESINGER.

NEW MEAT MARKET

Las Vegas, New Mexico.

SAUSAGES,

and every thing in the line on hand and for

A. LETCHER & CO.

DEALERS IN

General Merchandize

AND

Outfitting Goods

Las Vegas,.....New Mexico.

Limerick Brewery. FRANK WEBER.

PROPRIETOR,

GOLONDRINAS, N. M.

E. ROMERO,

WHOLESALE & RETAIL

South West Corner of Plaza,

Las Vegas,..... New Mexico.

groceries groceries gr-ceries groceries groceries

GROCERIES

groceries gruceries

provisions, rovisions provisions promisions provisions provisiors provisions provisions provisious

groceries

groceries

GRAIN.

cigars tobacco cidara tobacco eigars tobseen vigars tobucco liquors cigara tobacco liquors vigars toluces cigars tobacco liquora

Dry Woods,

and shoen notions hats caps and furs; hardware erockery and glassware tools and farming utensils stople and fancy goods, foreign and domestic silks and coulens, shorts dress trimmings, silk and celect ribbons, hosiery, gloves, earpels, lamps, slways on band, as good as the best and cheaper than the cheapest.

CASH,

And the highest prices constantly paid for

WOOL,

HIDES, HIDES, GOATSKINS, SHEEPSKINS,

W. A. CLANK, South Side Plaza, Las Vegas, N. M.

· FURS,

MAY HAYS,

WHOLESALE & RETAIL

DEALER IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

DRY GOODS,

GROCERIES.

HARD WARE.

QUEENSWARE, IMPLEMENTS,

DRUGS, AND

MEDICINES,

Sen Sen

[South Side of the Plaza]